

European Commission

Labour law and working conditions

Social Europe guide | Volume 6

Social Europe

Labour law and working conditions

Social Europe guide

Volume 6

European Commission

Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion
Manuscript completed in February 2014

Table of Contents

Foreword	3
CHAPTER 1
Why the European Union has a role in labour law and working conditions	9
The EU's objectives	9
The Single Market	11
The EU and international law	13
The specific objectives of EU labour law	14
Europe 2020 and the current context	16
CHAPTER 2
How the EU deals with labour law and working conditions	19
The legal basis for EU action	19
The form and extent of EU action	21
The role of the social partners	23
Labour law's interaction with other EU policy areas	25
Contribution from Eurofound	28
Juan Menéndez-Valdés, Director of the European Foundation for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions	28
CHAPTER 3
EU labour law – an overview	33
A timeline of EU labour law	33
Working conditions directives	36
Directives on information, consultation and participation	42
Other forms of EU action	46
Contribution from the Lithuanian EU presidency	50
Interview with Algimanta Pabedinskiene, Minister of Social Security and Labour	50
CHAPTER 4
Health and safety at work	53
OSH directives	54
OSH strategies	63
Advisory bodies	65
Contribution from EU-OSHA	68
Christa Sedlatschek, Director of the European Agency for Safety and Health at Work	68

CHAPTER 5

The international dimension	71
Relationships with international organisations	74
The EU and the ILO	74
The Decent Work Agenda	74
The EU and the Council of Europe	76
The EU and the OECD	77
The United Nations	78
The EU on the global stage	78
 Contribution from the ILO	 87
Guy Ryder, ILO Director-General	87

CHAPTER 6

The way forward	91
Review of the Working Time Directive	91
The posting of workers in the EU	92
Seafarers	94
Reducing the amount of undeclared work	96
Youth Unemployment and the measures to combat the problem	97
Quality Framework on Traineeships	99
Quality Framework on Restructuring	99
Related EU-level social policy guidance	100
Helping workers make the most of jobs opportunities wherever they are	101
Helping the disabled	102
Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)	103
Europe 2020 and coordination of Member States' policies	103
Strengthening social dialogue	104
Better Regulation: REFIT	106
The international dimension	108
 Voice from the European Parliament	 110
Interview with Alejandro Cercas, Member of the European Parliament	110
 Forthcoming guide	 112